Town's mayor comes home for Christmas

HAVERHILL'S Mayor, Coun Ted Trebble, is home for Christmas – after six months in hospital recovering from a stroke.

Mr Trebble fell ill during a weekend with his family in Norfolk in June.

He received emergency treatment at the Norfolk and Norwich Hospital before starting out on the long road to recovery.

But after spending time in Addenbrooke's Hospital in Cambridge, and more recently in Newmarket Hospital, Mr Trebble is back where he belongs – in Haverhill – and is looking forward to a family Christmas.

He said: "I'm feeling pretty good, a bit achy,

BY Ben Lee

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

but pretty good. And the doctors think I'm doing all right. They told me to get out – mainly to get rid of me I think."

Mr Trebble is expecting a dozen of his brothers and sisters, along with their children, over the festive period and has even offered to help cook the Christmas dinner.

He said: "I hope to be back carrying out my responsibilities very soon."

Mayoral duties have been handed to Haverhill's deputy mayor, Les Ager, while Mr Trebble has been laid up.

Mr Trebble said: "Les has done a very good job while I have been away. I have been in touch to put my oar in every now and again, but they have kept the ship steady.

"This council could turn out to be one of the best we have ever had in Haverhill."

Mr Trebble took over the role of Mayor in May after being elected to the town council two-and-a-half years ago. More recently he became a St Edmundsbury borough councillor.

He first lived in Haverhill in the 1980s and was involved in extensive charity fundraising to buy defibrillators and other medical equipment for the town. He moved away but returned four years ago.

■ SLEIGH RIDE TOGETHER . . . Katie-Jane Arnold, three, was one of hundreds of children who had the chance to put in their Christmas gift wish list to Santa when he visited Haverhill last weekend. Santa was also kept busy picking up presents of his own on behalf of the Haverhill Round Table, which organises the sleigh tour of the town and surrounding villages along with Haverhill Rotary Club and Haverhill Ladies Circle. Donations collected during his visits will be given away by the groups next year. See full story and more pictures – Page 3

Bin collection switch bid to improve services

CHRISTMAS bin collection times have been announced.

Usual collection days have been replaced by a new schedule in a bid to make collections most effective over the holiday period.

For example, if a collection normally takes place on Monday, December 24, for the Christmas period only, that day's collection will be done on Saturday, December 22.

Tuesday, December 25's collection will be done on Monday, December 24; Wednesday, December 26's collection will be carried out on Thursday, December 27; Thursday, December 27's on Friday, December 28; and Friday, December 28's will be done on Saturday, December 29.

New Year's Eve's collection will be on the same day.

And the next week's collections, starting with Tuesday, January 1, will be done a day later than usual. Services return to normal on Monday, January 7.

St Edmundsbury's offices at Angel Hill and Western Way in Bury St Edmunds, and at Lower Downs Slade in Haverhill, will close for Christmas at 4pm this Friday and reopen at 9am on Monday, December 31.

The offices close again on New Year's Day, but reopen at 9am on Wednesday, January 2.

Please email waste.management@stedsb.gov.uk or call (01284) 757320 if you have any questions about when your waste will be collected.

The walls can come tumbling down

THE new Bishop of St Edmundsbury and Ipswich, the Rt Rev Nigel Stock, has used his first Christmas message to speak of his belief that peace in the Middle East is possible.

WHEN I visited Jerusalem in March, the walls separating Israelis and Palestinians reminded me of Hadrian's Wall, which only served as a barrier for a speck of time in history.

I believe those walls could come down in the same way as the Berlin Wall.

I have been saddened that over this past year people have held up faith communities as sources of division. Walls of fear are emerging because of people of different faiths and beliefs. I believe they are sources of coherence, and the Christian faith, above all, brings hope to many. Other walls are emerging in society, including walls of anxiety because of fears of recession. There were many such fears at the time when Christ was born in Bethlehem, just outside Jerusalem. The angels appeared to shepherds with the message of Peace and Goodwill and it is that same message that the church brings to society today.

■ The Bishop's full message is available as a podcast on the website of the Church of England in Suffolk at www.stedmundsbury.anglican.org and click on latest publications.

Santa stops off to collect lists and donations

SANTA has been picking up cash presents in Haverhill this week, ready for Christmas. The Haverhill Round Table is making a series of charitable visits around Haverhill, collecting cash donations to give away next year. It made a stop in Haverhill town centre on Saturday and is repeating the event this Saturday. The sleigh is organised by Haverhill Round Table, Haverhill Rotary Club and Haverhill Ladies Circle. They have already stopped off at Westbourne Court where generous residents had collected £150 with a raffle, and one lady handed over her £100 bingo winnings. Paul Stephens, from the Haverhill Round Table, said: "Every year we take our Christmas sleigh out around the town collecting money for local charities and organisations. This contribution has given us a fantastic start for this year." The sleigh will also be stopping in Parkway this Friday, and in Hundon, on Sunday between noon and 3pm. The cash collected will be distributed in 2008 to local good causes. To apply for a donation, please contact Paul Jackson, chairman of the Haverhill Round Table, on (01440) 709 447.

■ Haverhill got into the Christmas spirit at the town centre's traditional Family Christmas night. Flocks of revellers descended on the town centre for one of the biggest nights of the year. Entertainers included the extraordinary animatronic Bjorn the Polar Bear, who with his helper, Ursula, astounded onlookers with fascinating facts about endangered animals. Large numbers of shops stayed open until 8.30pm with many of the traders dressing up their windows in the spirit of the season. And Stephane Spitz and his Swervy World Santas brought more music and mayhem to the town centre with their swinging, rocking versions of carols. Churches Together led carols on the recreation ground, which was followed by a fireworks display, this year with a Snow White theme – the title of the pantomime being held at the Haverhill Arts Centre in January. Event organiser Nick Keeble said: "The panto-themed displays have proved popular over the last two years and are specially developed for Haverhill. "There is an extra special effect planned for this year but I can't say in case I spoil the surprise."

'Still much to do'

His term as mayor officially ends in May.

He said: "There are one or two things I want to work on before my time comes to an end. I would love to see a bird sanctuary on West Downs Park and if we could get a hospital in Haverhill that would be fantastic. But in the current climate, I can't see the hospital happening."

Doctor's anger over prison care contract

HEALTH bosses deny they promised a Haverhill doctor a key contract at Highpoint prison – which is now going out to public tender.

Dr Andrew Cornish, a GP at Christmas Maltings surgery, claims his practice was in line for the contract to provide services to prisoners at the Suffolk jail.

He says he was "amazed" to receive a letter from Suffolk Primary Care Trust explaining that the contract will now go to tender.

He said: "This news has come as a complete surprise to us. We have been negotiating this contract with the PCT for over a year and it is hard to believe they had not realised it should go to tender before."

BY Ben Lee

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

It is a double blow for the surgery – it will be hit by a cut of £280,000 to the town's GP budgets from April.

Dr Cornish said: "We have been working hard over the last few months, planning how we were going to manage with the reduced funding.

"To discover one of the promised lifelines has been kicked away from under us only a few days before we have to agree to the funding reduction is a complete shock.

"It leaves one wondering how much of what the PCT says we can trust?"

But Suffolk PCT says it wants to make sure it gets the best service possible.

Julian Herbert, director of finance and performance, said: "We are concerned by Dr Cornish's claims as we do not believe any public statement was made guaranteeing the prison contract to one practice.

"There are strict laws governing tendering processes and we would also want to ensure we would get the best service possible.

"Dr Cornish is eligible to apply for the prison contract, as is any other local GP practice, and we would welcome any such application."

The PCT stressed the contract is to provide extra funding to improve GP care to prisoners and has no impact on local GP services.

'Whistleblower' loses unfair dismissal fight

A HAVERHILL woman who alleged she was forced to quit after "blowing the whistle" on a colleague has lost an employment tribunal.

Krystal Robinson claimed she was forced to quit her job at the Community Resource Unit, in Reeds Lane, Haverhill, after making claims that a colleague had been verbally abusive towards vulnerable adults.

Although she had worked there for almost five years she resigned after she said her manager bullied and harassed her to the point when she had to take sick leave.

She took her case to a Bury St Edmunds employment tribunal, claiming unfair dismissal and public interest disclosure – better known as whistleblowing – but her claims were thrown out.

Judge Brian Mitchell said: "It seems most regrettable that in a caring environment with confident and professional staff there should have arisen such a mutually uncomfortable situation whereby one set of staff felt unable to work satisfactorily with the other set and where one set of staff regarded itself as less valued by the manager of the unit."

However, Suffolk County Council had not acted in a way that was calculated or likely to cause a breach of trust and confidence between employer and employee, said Judge Mitchell.

An investigation into grievances lodged by Miss Robinson had been taken place when she decided to leave.

The three-member tribunal panel also ruled that Miss Robinson's claim of detriment caused by her "whistle-blowing" could not be upheld because no undertaking of confidentiality had been given.

Miss Robinson told the tribunal, when it opened in September, that after going on maternity leave she never returned to her job as a day care officer because the situation had become too stressful.

She said she had been shocked by a colleague who, she alleged, had sworn at and been verbally abusive towards vulnerable adults in their care – an allegation which was denied.

She said she had felt isolated because of a total lack of contact from her manager and said a staff member had made false claims that she was involved in drug-taking. She was then signed off sick for more than three months by her GP with stress and depression.

Miss Robinson alleged that although she had not been formally dismissed, her treatment had amounted to constructive unfair dismissal.

Suffolk County Council, which had strongly denied Miss Robinson's claims, said it was working to restore the reputation of a number of staff who had been wrongly accused of wrong-doing.

Man in court over thefts

A HAVERHILL man has been charged with car theft offences.

Liam Darby, 23, of Eastern Avenue, Haverhill, has been charged with theft from, and theft of, motor vehicles. The charges relate to offences allegedly committed earlier this month in Haverhill's Hamlet Road, Greenwood Close, Landseer Court, Bumpstead Road, York Road and Bute Court.

Darby appeared before Bury magistrates and was remanded in custody until January 7.

Play time for council thanks to cash boost

ST EDMUNDSBURY Borough Council has been given an early Christmas present of £200,000 from the Lottery.

The council has been awarded the money to provide more opportunities for play in the borough over the next three years.

There are also plans afoot for an annual summer children's festival in Haverhill.

The grant, from the Big Lottery
Fund, follows the submission of a play strategy for the borough, which aims to tackle issues such as child obesity and lack of independence.

The plan includes training a play worker and volunteers to "unlock existing play potential and create new play opportunities".

Coun Lynsey Alexander, portfolio holder for culture and sport said:
"Young people are the future of the borough and I feel passionately that they should realise their full potential."

"We have 23,700 children and young people under 19 growing up in St Edmundsbury for whom quality of life is particularly important."

Phones go out to help victims of violence

VICTIMS of domestic violence and hate crime in Haverhill are being offered a Christmas lifeline.

Suffolk Police's Victim Care Centre is loaning 12 mobile phones to vulnerable people during the festive period.

The phones will be given to people with no other means of communicating with others in an emergency. They include victims who have had to move out of their home because of domestic abuse, or someone whose partner restricts their access to money.

Sgt Jerry Hoy, from the victim care centre, said: "These phones could be the only link recipients have with the outside world."

"The phones all come with pre-paid credit to enable recipients to make emergency calls if they need to."

The care centre is based in Bury St Edmunds and is one of three across Suffolk. They are dedicated to helping vulnerable victims of crime and witnesses, including children, vulnerable adults, victims of rape, sexual assault, domestic violence and hate crime.

Carphone Warehouse is providing the phones to the centre at a reduced cost.

BY Jo Deeks

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

Marianne Fellowes, county domestic violence and abuse projects team manager, said: "For most of us Christmas is about spending quality time with family and friends, but sadly people already in abusive relationships are more likely to suffer additionally from domestic abuse at this time of year."

"Although alcohol is no excuse for emotional, financial, physical or sexual abuse, it can significantly heighten tensions, particularly during the festive period."

In Suffolk, alcohol is a factor in more than 60 per cent of domestic violence incidents.

Sgt Hoy added: "These mobile phones will be going to people who have already been referred to the victim care centre, but there will be many more people who need the lifeline the phone can give."

"By reporting domestic violence you could help a victim break free from the violence they are suffering this Christmas."

To report an incident of domestic violence call the police on (01473) 613500.

Kedington

VI WYATT, the Royal British Legion Poppy Appeal organiser for Kedington and District Branch Royal British Legion, announced the result to date of this year's Poppy Appeal which has been very successful and currently stands at £3,941.36.

The breakdown reveals that the sale of wreaths amounted to £315; donation from the Royal British Legion £200; Women's Section Royal British Legion £166; parish council £30; church collection £290.57. Bar units: Barnardiston Arms £38.52, White Horse £10.86, Rose Tavern £27, Stoke Lion £27, (total of £104.14); Home units £80.73; Special events – Whist Drive £152.37; bingo night £280 and grand draw £689 – events total £1,121.37. The branch is most grateful to the 19 house-to-house collectors in the district who, along with school staff, Brampian Foods, Stourmead, paper shop Herbert's, Haverhill, Kedington Butchers, Red Lion, and Eastcotts Nursing Home collected £1,633.95, over £300 more than the previous year. Kedington Branch is most grateful to all who donated and helped in collecting this excellent sum from which the Legion supports thousands of veterans from the two world wars, plus those currently serving in the Middle East.

■ Kedington and District Royal British Legion held its annual dinner, combined with the 80th anniversary of the formation of the branch in the Arms clubroom. More than 60 people enjoyed an excellent meal prepared by the service committee and friends. The Exhortation for Fallen Comrades (including those in the Middle East campaigns) was spoken by branch chairman Fred Phillips MBE, as was the Grace, and the Kohima Epitaph by branch vice-chairman Bill Smith. The hall had been beautifully decorated with Christmas decorations, balloons, fresh flowers and wine provided by branch president Leslie Parkin. In replying to the roasts, branch secretary Brian Tyrell reflected on the success of the branch over recent years, but that sadly somewhere along the line, minutes of meetings prior to 1957 had gone astray. The secretary voiced the thanks of the branch to unsung heroes who had worked hard over the years, too many to call by name. However, he did name one who had worked for the branch for more than 27 years, in respect of the Women's Section and the Poppy Appeal organiser. In recognition of this long, outstanding service, an appropriately worded framed plaque was presented, along with congratulations, to Vi Wyatt for her outstanding service to the branch. In replying Mrs Wyatt voiced thanks to all her helpers for the Poppy Appeal. The secretary complimented members on their generosity in donating 43 raffle prizes in addition to three more valuable donations which were put up for auction. These were auctioned by the vice-chairman with the result that a hamper went for £30, a bottle of Highland whisky for £25, and a framed hand-painted painting by a local artist for £50. Excellent musical entertainment was provided by Mike Hearn. All proceeds were in aid of branch funds.

WEEKLY NEWS Letters

THE Haverhill Weekly News welcomes your views. Write to: Readers Letters, Haverhill Weekly News, 4 Queen Street, Haverhill, CB9 9EF or send an email to editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk Please be as concise as possible and attach your full name, address and telephone number.

What about safety in the arts centre?

Sir, Referring to Gordon Mussett's (town clerk) remarks in a council column regarding parking on pavements in the High Street, the council highlighted the hazards caused to visually and mobility impaired people. How nice of them to bring this to the townspeople's notice!

Let's hope the council can now adopt the same views of safety in the arts centre. On numerous occasions they have ignored situations within their own business environment, where deficiencies were identified recently to them by outside professional bodies.

I do believe this is a perfect example of the pots calling the kettles black, or of shameless hypocrisy. The pavement parking is surely a matter for the police, not an incompetent council.

SAM'S THE WORD

News from Samuel Ward Arts and Technology College

WITH THE end of term finally here, the students have been involved in a variety of activities in the build up to Christmas.

■ The Sixth Form had a magnificent result in a competition called "Make Your Mark" in which they took third place. This was a national competition which involved various activities based around careers and they impressed a number of judges, including Levi Roots (founder of Reggae Reggae Sauce), who made his fortune with help from TV's Dragons Den. Congratulations to all those students involved.

■ On the subject of Sixth Form, the annual Christmas Ball saw all the students dressed to impress! They hit the dance floor and had a good time which put everyone in the Christmas spirit. It was a great success.

■ Textiles students were lucky enough to go to the Clothes Show Live event at the NEC in Birmingham. This gave them the opportunity to see all the latest fashions as well as getting some bargains along the way. This will aid their inspiration for their next projects.

■ Year 10 experienced another RE day in preparation for their life skills and knowledge. During the day, they learnt about marriage and the different views through invited guest speakers. Let's hope they gained some valuable information.

■ Last Monday, we held the annual awards evening which saw students from all years presented awards in recognition of their academic achievements and community support. The evening was presented by Bob Shepstone, chair of the governors, and the guest speaker was Deborah Cadman, chief executive of St Edmundsbury Borough Council. Congratulations to all those who received the awards.

■ Last week, we held a Christmas concert when students and teachers performed many musical items which got everyone geared up for Christmas. It was a good night that was well supported by many people who all enjoyed themselves.

■ The final event of 2007 saw the traditional Stars in Their Eyes competition which saw both students and teachers performing current hits as well as the classic songs that we all know and love. Once again, the standard of competition was raised and everyone left impressed by the competition. The winner will be named in the next issue.

■ Finally, we would like to wish everyone a safe and Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Club looks to its glorious past

A YOUTH club is celebrating its past by looking to the future. Camps Youth Club, based in Castle Camps, has been running for more than 35 years. And to celebrate this milestone, young people used a Heritage Young Roots grant to build a website for the club. Steph Basham, lead locality youth worker in the Sawston and Linton Locality, said: "The aim of the project is for young people to learn more about their community, to celebrate their achievements and to raise their profile in the community." The club harnessed the expertise of ex-youth club member Chris Herbert to help build the site.

The group is also building some benches for the club, using traditional methods, and resurrecting the village fete, which will be on July 12 next year. If you attended Camps Youth Club in the past, please register for the site at www.campsyouthclub.org

Hospitals step up infection controls

SUFFOLK hospitals have been stepping up work to ensure the MRSA super-bug does not flourish in its wards.

Suffolk Primary Care Trust (PCT) has been acting to reduce infections – such as MRSA and Clostridium difficile – in its care.

A task force has focused on hand hygiene, cleanliness and infection control standards of health facilities and appropriate use of antibiotics.

Suffolk PCT has also undertaken an audit of its community hospitals.

Carole Taylor-Brown, PCT chief executive, said: "We have a good record on infection control in our community hospitals but we can't be complacent.

BY Ben Lee

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

"The audit was necessary to identify any areas of concern and provide assurance that we are caring for patients in an environment which is safe, clean and minimises the risk of infection."

No major concerns were identified at Suffolk's community hospitals in Aldeburgh, Felixstowe and Newmarket and Bluebird Lodge at Ipswich.

Some significant concerns were identified at Walnuttree Hospital in Sudbury and as a result, the PCT commissioned a further external audit by an experienced infection control nurse and advisor from an NHS trust outside Suffolk.

The independent audit made a number of recommendations which the PCT is taking forward.

In particular, the audit identified the need to upgrade hand-washing facilities on each of the three wards.

Mrs Taylor-Brown said: "The PCT's priority above all other considerations is patient safety which is why this action is necessary."

Damage to car

WING mirrors have been ripped off a car in Haverhill. Both wing mirrors were ripped from a blue Smart Car coupe parked in Forest Glade, Haverhill between 8.15pm on December 15 and 3.30pm the next day. Sgt Sarah Bartley, at the Haverhill North Safer Neighbourhood Team, can be contacted on (01284) 774100, or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111, if you have any information.

Cowling removed

A CAR was interfered with in Haverhill. A Peugeot 306 has been entered after being left open and the cowling removed. The car was parked in Layer Road and was entered between 12.30pm on December 12 and 9am the next day. Call Pc Colin Cox at Haverhill Police on (01284) 774100, or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111, if you saw anything.

Youngsters get the chance to go wild

YOUNG people are being urged to put something back into their community.

Go Wild is a project aimed at young people aged between 9-19 years which encourages them to get involved in their community through volunteering.

Part of the project is in partnership with Haverhill East

Town Park (ETP).

Participants get involved in conservation work and wildlife at ETP, with the chance to build their own bird box.

The project workshops will take place on one Saturday afternoon each month next year.

If you are interested in the project, call the Haverhill Volunteer Centre on (01440) 708444.

Cancer unit appeal tops £100,000

BY John Downing

Email: editorial@haverhillweeklynews.co.uk

CHRISTMAS has come early for the appeal to help build a specialist teenager cancer unit as it tops the £100,000 mark.

The fantastic response of readers has helped our sister paper, the Cambridge News, raise this magnificent amount in less than six weeks. The goal is to raise £1 million, half of the total needed for a Teenage Cancer Trust (TCT) unit at Addenbrooke's Hospital.

And when cheques from three lodges of the Freemasons in Cambridgeshire were handed over, the combined £2,000 was just enough to tip the balance over £100,000.

Murray Morse, Editor of the Evening News, said: "To have reached a total of £100,000 in just under six weeks is a fantastic achievement. I want to give my heartfelt thanks to the three Freemasons' lodges that have helped us reach this milestone and to everyone else who has contributed so far."

"When we set our target of £1 million on November 7, it seemed a daunting task. But the response we've had from the community has been wonderful – from young children to major businesses, everyone has dug deep. We just need to keep the money coming in for what is a desperately important cause. With

■ WOW . . . Cambridge News Editor Murray Morse, above left, celebrates the news with cancer patient Nick Kostov. Above right, fundraiser Penny Matthews pulls in the cash at her 13th birthday party, helped by mum, Liz and dad, Stuart.

How you can boost the total

The equivalent of £1 from every adult in East Anglia will give teenage cancer patients access to a TCT unit. Here is how you can make a donation:

- Make a cheque payable to Press Relief – TCT Appeal, and send it to Teenage Cancer Trust Appeal, PO Box 232, Cambridge CB5 8FF.
- Visit any branch of Cambridge Building Society, where donations in cash or by cheque are accepted.

your help we can reach the million."

The appeal is backed by Press Relief, the News' charity, and Andy Gough, chairman of trustees was present for the cheque presentation. Also present was Helen Bearfield-Smith, regional appeals manager for East Anglia at the TCT.

She thanked everyone who had made a contribution since the appeal was launched and those who had made donations before the Addenbrooke's TCT plans became a reality.

Helen said: "It is fantastic that we have achieved this milestone so quickly. But we still have a long way to go to reach our goal."

Bob McCarthy, worshipful master of the Freemason's Thirkill lodge in Cambridge, handed over £500 to the appeal. The money was the proceeds of a raffle raised at a ladies' night staged by his wife, Margaret.

Graham Gardiner, the lodge treasurer, raised a further £250 at Mill Road's winter fair and thanked all who contributed.

The St Audrey lodge in Ely contributed

£750 from social functions and its worshipful master, David Deverson, said: "This is an excellent cause."

A cheque for £500 from Alma Mater, one of the Cambridge University lodges, was also presented.

Among kind-hearted fundraisers was 13-year-old Penny Matthews, who held a party at Comberton Village Hall.

Penny, of The Valley, Comberton, asked her friends to donate money to the Teenage Cancer Trust appeal, instead of buying her a present.

She said: "About 100 people turned up, we've raised more than £400 for your teenage cancer appeal. All my friends were talking about it and they said how glad they were to support it. Some of them now want to do the same for their parties, too."

The Year 8 pupil at Comberton Village College – whose parents both have cancer – said she was inspired by Liam Fairhurst after reading about his battle with cancer.

Nick Kostov, 20, of Great Wilbraham, is one of the patients who will benefit from the new unit.

Nick, who is currently receiving treatment at Addenbrooke's, said: "It's been really impressive how the community has responded to this appeal." He urged everyone to keep giving generously.

Pupils at the King's School, Ely, handed over a cheque for £22,136 after holding a string of wacky events. This included rugby players having their legs waxed and cake and book stalls. One pupil raised more than £2,000 by having his hair cropped on the stage of the school's Hayward Theatre.

Also, everyone from Chinese artists to churchgoers in Fordham have dug deep to help reach this milestone in time for Christmas.

WEEKLY NEWS

'What's the date?' asks 999 caller

A COMPILATION of bizarre 999 calls has been released by police – in a bid to stop 8,800 hoax and nuisance calls a month.

A staggering 80 per cent of emergency calls to police are either misguided or malicious, say Cambridgeshire police.

That amounts to a massive 105,600 calls a year which are wasting police time. The calls range from the wacky or hilarious to the downright stupid.

A woman demanding to speak to Tony Blair, and a shopper phoning for directions to Homebase, are just two such calls the police received.

Five of the 999 gaffes have been released by the force and posted on its website. In one a caller asks: "What is today's date?" Another tells police: "There is pole dancing at number three."

A woman calls to say: "I can't find Homebase and

"I'm very distressed." A man in need of a quick trim asks: "Is there a barber's shop open in Cambridge?"

Another woman is angry and distressed and asks to speak to the Prime Minister.

Chief Insp Mike Winters said: "We wouldn't just simply put the phone down without engaging in conversation. We have to explore the reasons for the call to make an assessment about how genuine it is.

"However, we will have to get stricter in pointing out that people should be ringing the non-emergency number in the majority of occasions, not 999.

"At the moment we are tending to hang on to nuisance callers too long in an effort to help them, but this could be detrimental to other people in genuine need.

"Operators are aware of how many other calls are waiting when they are taking a nuisance call. It may be that these mistaken or nuisance calls get more sympathy at a quiet time of the day, but in busy times there are other people suffering a genuine emergency."

In any day the control room takes between 350 and 600 999 calls.

Chief Insp Winters said: "What challenges us is when we get a lot of calls in a very small period. With the proliferation of mobile phones, for one incident we may get dozens of calls.

"Road collisions are a classic example – in the past one person may have called in about a collision. Now there may be 10 or more calls in a short space of time. They all need answering, and answering quickly. The message is, don't put lives at risk by calling 999 when you do not need an emergency police response."

The five calls can be downloaded from the force website at www.cambs.police.uk

House prices down but hopes high

LATEST house prices continue to show a downward trend – but estate agents are confident of a revival.

There has been a 3.4 per cent drop in prices across East Anglia in December. An average house now costs £221,931.

John Pocock, managing director of Cambridge-based Pocock and Shaw estate agents, believes a fall in prices is due to a lack of buyer confidence.

He said: "People have to make decisions to go ahead. At the moment, many are reluctant to make that decision. We are waiting for that to change and it will do, I've seen it happen before.

"I confidently predict a more balanced housing market by February."

Price figures from property website Rightmove show Cambridgeshire prices are down 0.7 per cent to £260,258.

In Suffolk, the average price has dropped by 0.9 per cent to £205,792. Figures are in comparison with November prices.

For Cambridge itself, prices have not moved and remain at an average of £303,000.

In Ely, prices are down by 0.8 per cent to £218,000 while in Huntingdon, there has been a 1.8 per cent fall to £233,000.

Ashley Carter, associate partner for Russell Residential, based in Littleport, puts forward rising interest rates, the collapse of Northern Rock and the introduction of controversial Home Information Packs (HIPs) as contributory factors, together with bleak media reports.

Mr Carter said: "The national media has talked up a housing slump but I just can't see that happening, certainly not in this area. We are so close to the capital the demand is always going to be there."

He added: "The lack of confidence has seen sellers pulling out, putting the property out to rent and waiting to see how the market is in six months. We will just have to wait and see how the first quarter of next year goes."

However, despite the falls of recent months, house prices are higher than they were this time last year. In December 2006, a house in Cambridge cost £271,959 on average – almost 12 per cent less than today.

For East Anglia generally, prices have risen 2.6 per cent. Nationally, prices are up 4.8 per cent this year.

■ ON THE WAY UP? ... prices are down now, but estates agents are optimistic.

Another panto success – with all the trimmings

ANASTY bout of laryngitis from the leading man and an unpopular sweet ban hasn't stopped the Cambridge Arts Theatre serving up another huge panto success this year with a Cinderella spectacular. Matt Crosby, who plays Buttons, and has become a firm children's favourite in the theatre's annual Christmas extravaganza, bravely soldiered on through last Monday's performance despite the bug but he's now back to his – groansome gagging – best. All the traditional panto trimmings are there once again with infectious song and dance routines, jokes coming thick and fast and plenty of raucous participation from the audience – in fact the only thing missing was the sweets the stars traditionally throw into the audience. The festive custom has been banned by unpopular health and safety regulations this year.

Comedy actress Helen Lederer made her panto debut as the Fairy Godmother in winning style while the show's director and choreographer Brad Fitt and Scott Ritchie proved they've got what it takes onstage as well as off it by donning a series of increasingly absurd frocks and wigs to play the deliciously nasty Ugly Sisters.

Hollyoaks star Julie Buckfield stepped up to the challenge and is clearly enjoying playing a girl for the first time in her annual Cambridge panto appearance.

Highlights include a side-splitting performance from Buttons and an Ugly Sister – proving they are possibly the worst ballet dancers in the world – and the dazzling spectacle of a flying horse and carriage which is the finale to the first act and had children's jaws dropping in awe. There was something for dads as well, as Prince Charming and valet Dandini arrived, played by Polli Redstone and Ellie Cobb.

The panto had a rocky start when the launch party had to be moved to the Guildhall due to an electricity failure. But power cuts, sore throats and health and safety jobsworths have done nothing to stop crowds having a ball at the Arts Theatre this Christmas.

■ Cinderella runs until January 20. To book tickets contact (01223) 503333.

■ Peter Pan on Ice, the Cambridge Corn Exchange Christmas show, featuring world class skating by Russian ice stars, runs until Saturday, January 5. For tickets, contact the box office on (01223) 357851.

■ TREAT FOR THE DADS . . . above, Polli Redstone and Ellie Cobb. Right, Julie Buckfield in the lead role of Cinderella.

HAVERHILL WEEKLY NEWS

MOTORING

New Scenic is quite a Conquest

WHEN the first Scenic appeared it did exciting things like offer sliding rear seats which went sideways so your guests could stretch out as you took them to the theatre.

Today's version is still looking for roles to fulfil. In the case of the Scenic Conquest ("conquer the outdoors" – get it?) it is putting itself forward as an off-roader without any real off-road qualifications. Renault says it is suitable for the urban jungle as well as the countryside and, to this end, it has a ground clearance which is 20mm higher than the standard Scenic.

It also has modified suspension and specially tailored traction control to give it a little more grip. On the cosmetic front it has 'chrome effect' skid plates which apparently set you up for journeys that take you off the beaten track.

Like most people who will buy it I used the Conquest on a number of on-road journeys, only pausing to admire its red, sorry "Cayenne", seat belts, stitching on the steering wheel and upholstery and twiddly little red lines that run across the dashboard.

In this role it proved superb. The diesel purrs along like a cat in front of a Christmas log fire while the six-speed manual gearbox is totally slick and offers a very high cruising ratio which in turn gives consumption nicely above the 40mpg mark. And you won't want for performance either because the 1.9-litre diesel turns in surprising amounts of sparkle. This with the very comfortable and high seating position makes for very relaxing driving.

Two folding armrests in the front makes things comfortable for driver and passenger while beneath these is a large box with a roll-top lid. Buried inside this is a 12V power point which I suspect many people are going to use for their satnav. It does mean quite a lot of cable winding around and dragging across the gearchange whereas a socket on or around the dash would make things easier.

Even with the rear row of seats in position the Scenic Conquest has a considerable amount of space. It will swallow the contents of a Cité Europe trolley and leave you wondering where the stuff went. Inside it is well fitted out with underfloor cubby holes and abovefloor pockets so oddments don't need to get under your feet.

BASICALLY . . .

A dollied-up version of the Scenic which offers even more civilisation than its brethren. Good supple ride, very quiet interior, nice handling and lots and lots of practicality will make it many friends. But don't take the crossing swamps and rivers side of it too seriously.

MOTURING

Poll highlights shifting concerns for motorists

THE average motorist deplores drink-driving, often breaks the speed limit, but does not believe speed cameras improve road safety, a survey out this week revealed.

Drivers generally use their cars to commute to work, and are concerned about the damage vehicles do to the environment but do not think congestion charging is the answer; the poll from insurance company Admiral found.

As many as 62 per cent of the 1,800 UK motorists questioned think direct action in protest at fuel prices is justified.

The survey also showed that drivers worry about car crime, think that insurance fraud is a genuine crime, sometimes break everyday rules of the road but find the bad habits of others irritating.

They get angry with other road users, think they are better at driving than other motorists, find driving more stressful than a year ago but cannot manage without their car.

Among things the research found were:

■ The number of motorists who have been breathalysed is down this year, but men are still three times more likely to be breathalysed than women;

■ Three-quarters of motorists admit they have driven over the speed limit, but only 32 per cent think speed cameras improve safety;

■ More than half of motorists have used public transport in the last year, but generally see it as inconvenient and expensive;

■ 57 per cent are worried about cars' effect on the environment and only 27 per cent think congestion charging should be introduced in towns other than London;

■ 75 per cent admit feeling angry at some time when they are driving, while 23 per cent ignore the ban on hand-held mobiles although this is a lower figure than last year's 33 per cent;

■ Just one per cent think their driving skills are poorer than average, with half reckoning they are above average;

■ Elderly motorists are rated the worst on the road, while 82 per cent of all drivers reckon parents should be discouraged from doing the school run.

Admiral managing director Sue Longthorn said: "Our 2007 survey has thrown up some really interesting results, and shows just how complex motorists are."

Motorists have found their voice in recent years and have the potential of becoming a powerful lobbying group. Our survey gives a snapshot of what the country's 38 million motorists are thinking.

■ BREATHALYSED . . . men are three times more likely to be tested than women.

"I think the results illustrate the contradictory nature of being a motorist in Britain today; for example on the one hand they are aware of the damage driving does to the environment, but are reluctant to do anything about it. They worry about car crime, but are happy to leave personal items on show in their car."

■ Nearly half (45 per cent) of young drivers take to the road in the early morning after a heavy night's drinking, new figures show.

Motorists aged 17 to 24 are nearly twice as likely as older drivers to take the controls while still over the legal alcohol limit from the previous evening, a survey from breakdown company Green Flag and road safety charity Brake found.

The two organisations today warned young drivers to ensure they did not drive after a heavy night.

They urged motorists to remember that alcohol can stay in the body for a surprisingly long time, with four pints of strong beer taking about 13 hours to "clear the system".

Latest 207 SW goes Outdoors

THE third member of the Peugeot 207 SW range will be launched in the UK in December.

The 207 SW Outdoor is based on the 207 SW Sport but brings a visual off-road look to the range with increased ground clearance (raised by 16mm at the front and 21mm at the rear) and fitment of new 16-inch alloy wheels.

The Outdoor will have three engine options, two HDi diesels, and one petrol. Prices start from £13,650 on-the-road.

■ THE 207 SW OUTDOOR . . . latest arrival gets increased ground clearance and protecting mouldings.

MOTORING

Used car expert has expanded database

IN line with the recent huge rise in the number of new-model launches, Euro-taxGlass's has expanded its motoring database to maintain its coverage of all significant variants now available in the used car market.

Euro-taxGlass's, publisher of Glass's Guide, the motor trade pricing bible, says that the exceptional level of launch activity – with more than 270 new model ranges arriving in the UK over the past two years – has increased the challenge faced by the firm's editorial team responsible for monitoring used vehicle prices.

The editorial team now generates more than 200,000 valuations each month, using market insight and experience to interpret data from a vast array of third-party sources, including dealers, auction houses, and fleet organisations.

The new data will be incorporated into Glass's Guide – in a recent Euro-taxGlass's survey, 91 per cent of car dealers said they refer to the Guide when valuing a potential purchase, while 80 per cent use the Guide to set an appropriate resale price.

Back in 2005 Euro-taxGlass's doubled the amount of data printed on each page of the Guide, in response to the growing number of models on the market. This move enabled the Guide to remain relatively slim and to retain portability, another characteristic valued by the second-hand motor trade.

Meanwhile, the publisher has been assessing the winter market prospects for off-road vehicles.

"The cavernous boot space of an off-roader is perfect for wet dogs and muddy wellies, making such vehicles ideal for winter weather and foul road conditions and, therefore, ideal buys for this time of year," says John Glynn, older-car editor at Euro-taxGlass's.

"One question currently being asked by many dealers is – will the weather deteriorate significantly enough this winter to encourage more into 4x4 ownership when a litre of fuel exceeds £1 a litre?" adds Glynn.

"The answer is that, even with a tough winter, there is unlikely to be any great lift in price on a national level, but there have been encouraging signs of interest in older 4x4s.

"Older Japanese off-road vehicles in particular are always popular, with some even going to foreign bidders, hunting for vehicles to break for parts," concludes Glynn.

■ MITSUBISHI SHOGUN... tempting in winter, with space and off-road ability.

Give the experience of a lifetime for a Christmas present

Ever wondered what it feels like to have a bird of prey fly to your hand or take one hunting in the local countryside? Well now you can.... All of our activity days are one to one with a trained handler to make your day as memorable as possible. Prices start at £40.

For something a little less hands on, why not adopt one of the many birds we have at The Raptor Foundation. You will get a photograph, adoption certificate and one years membership to The Raptor Foundation. All for just £55.

For more details please phone The Raptor Foundation on 01487 741140 or visit our website www.raptorfoundation.org.uk for our Twilight Flying evenings

HIGHWAYS AGENCY
ROAD TRAFFIC REGULATION ACT 1984 – SECTION 14(1)(a), 5(b) AND (7)
THE A14 TRUNK ROAD (HISTON INTERCHANGE, JUNCTION 32, TO STOW-CUM-QUY INTERCHANGE, JUNCTION 35, CAMBRIDGESHIRE) (TEMPORARY RESTRICTION AND PROHIBITION OF TRAFFIC) ORDER 200
 NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Secretary of State for Transport intends to make an Order on the A14 Trunk Road near Cambridge in the County of Cambridgeshire, to allow for the resurfacing of the A14 eastbound carriageway between Milton and Fen Ditton, removal of an existing substandard layby, and renewal works to safety barriers, signage and bridge expansion joints.
 It is expected that the works would take place over a period of 8 weeks starting on, or after, Monday 7 January 2008. The Order would come into force when the appropriate traffic signs are erected from 4 January 2008 and have a maximum duration of eighteen months.
 For the safety of the general public, from 00.01 hours starting on Monday 7 January 2008 until completion of the works, the effect of the Order would be to -

- impose a 50 miles per hour speed limit on the A14 -
 - eastbound carriageway from a point 1.5 kilometres west of the centre point of the western overbridge at the A14/A10 Milton Interchange, Junction 33, continuing in an easterly direction for a distance of approximately 3.5 kilometres, and
 - westbound carriageway from a point 1.3 kilometres east of the centre point of the overbridge at the A14/B1047 Fen Ditton Interchange, Junction 34, continuing in a westerly direction for a distance of approximately 3.9 kilometres;
- close the laybys situated adjacent to the eastbound carriageway of the A14 at points -
 - 1.4 kilometres and 800 metres west of the centre point of the western overbridge at the A14/A10 Milton Interchange, Junction 33;
 - 1 kilometre east of the centre point of the eastern overbridge at the A14/A10 Milton Interchange, Junction 33;
 - 150 metres west of the centre point of the overbridge at the A14/B1047 Fen Ditton Interchange, Junction 34, and
 - 1.3 kilometres west of the centre point of the western overbridge at the A14/B1049 Histon Interchange, Junction 32;
- close the laybys situated adjacent to the westbound carriageway of the A14 at points -
 - 400 metres east of the centre point of the overbridge at the A14/B1047 Fen Ditton Interchange, Junction 34, and
 - 2.4 kilometres east of the centre point of the eastern overbridge at the A14/A1305 Stow-cum-Quy Interchange, Junction 35;
- impose a 3.2 metres width restriction on the A14 –
 - eastbound carriageway from a point 1.3 kilometres west of the centre point of the western overbridge at the A14/B1049 Histon Interchange, Junction 32, to a point 500 metres west of the centre point of the A14/B1047 Fen Ditton Interchange overbridge, Junction 34, and
 - westbound carriageway from a point 2.4 kilometres east of the centre point of the eastern overbridge at the A14/A1305 Stow-cum-Quy Interchange, Junction 35, to a point 300 metres west of the centre point of the western overbridge at the A14/A10 Milton Interchange, Junction 33.

Vehicles exceeding the 3.2 metres width restriction whilst waiting for authorised vehicles to escort them through the works, would be permitted to use the laybys described at (b)(iv) and (c)(ii) above.

Works would be carried out between the hours of 20.00 to 06.00 the following morning. During these periods of overnight works, the effect of the Order would be to close the A14 eastbound -

- entry slip road at the A14/A10 Milton Interchange, Junction 33, and exit slip road at the A14/B1047 Fen Ditton Interchange, Junction 34, and
- carriageway between points 200 metres east of the centre point of the eastern overbridge at the A14/A10 Milton Interchange, Junction 33, and 500 metres west of the centre point of the overbridge at the A14/B1047 Fen Ditton Interchange, Junction 34, a distance of approximately 1.5 kilometres.

A contraflow would be in operation on the westbound carriageway during the eastbound carriageway closure.

Traffic affected by the A14 eastbound entry slip road closure at the A14/A10 Milton Interchange, Junction 33, would be diverted on to the westbound carriageway to the A14/B1049 Histon Interchange, Junction 32 to rejoin the A14 eastbound carriageway.

Traffic affected by the A14 eastbound exit slip road closure at the A14/B1047 Fen Ditton Interchange, Junction 34, would be diverted to the A14/A1303 Stow-cum-Quy Interchange, Junction 35, exiting and joining the A1303 to Fen Ditton, to join the B1047 Ditton Lane/Horningsea Road.

The 17 tonne weight restriction which is in place on the B1047 Ditton Lane/Horningsea Road from its junction with the A1303 Newmarket Road to its junction with the A14/B1047 Fen Ditton Interchange eastbound exit slip road, would be suspended during the A14 eastbound exit slip road closure.

The temporary mandatory speed limit (which would not apply to emergency service vehicles) slip roads, carriageway and layby closures (which would not apply to emergency service, Winter Service Maintenance or works vehicles), contraflow, width restriction and diversion routes, would be clearly signposted throughout the duration of the works.

Transport and Distribution Manager

Salary £26,500 - £30,000 pa. Cambridge

This is a key role involving the management of around 25 drivers who are responsible for delivering our portfolio of publications to retail outlets and residential addresses in a 30 mile radius of Cambridge.

Each week we make in the region of 5,500 drops when we deliver almost 500,000 copies of Cambridge News, our Weekly News Series and portfolio of magazines. Our distribution area is Cambridge and the surrounding towns of St Neots, St Ives, Huntingdon, Ely, Newmarket, Haverhill, Saffron Walden and Royston. We also deliver further afield on occasion.

The successful candidate should have experience in a similar multi-drop environment, and will be capable of responding to a fast moving challenging workload. You will need to be computer literate and have a flexible approach to your attendance; some Saturdays and Bank Holiday working will be required.

You will also have a hands-on approach to managing the daily distribution requirements, and a sound knowledge of the geographical area would be an advantage. Strong customer care ethos is an essential requirement of the job.

For an application pack call Aileen Brown, Newspaper Sales Manager on 01223 434269 or email aileen.brown@cambridge-news.co.uk

Closing date for applications is Friday 11 January, 2008.

We are a leading regional newspaper publisher and a member of Iliffe News & Media. We offer 5 weeks annual holiday and free on site parking. Following a probationary period there is an option to join a contributory pension scheme and subsidised health cash plan.

WEB MANAGER

Are you a web manager interested in joining a successful and growing Cambridge publishing company that produces print and digital publications for national and international clients?

During 2007, Cambridge Publishers has won a number of new contracts, for customers as diverse as Tottenham Hotspur and Le Monde. Now we are looking for new people based in the Cambridge area to join us in early 2008 and support our drive for growth.

The amount of digital publishing our clients ask us to do is growing all the time. Thanks partly to his experience with us, our current web manager is off to do new media research at Tokyo University - and we need to replace him.

Good HTML/CSS skills are essential, PHP/MySQL desirable, but we'd also look at someone who is adept in other languages so long as they're happy working with database-driven web applications and are willing to learn new skills.

Please contact Mike Sewell, Editorial Director, with a CV and links to examples of your work, as well as your salary expectations. Write to Mike at Cambridge Publishers, 275 Newmarket Road, Cambridge CB5 8JE, or email him at mike@cpl.biz. Find out more about Cambridge Publishers at www.cpl.biz

Assistant Chief Sub-Editor

■ We are looking for an Assistant Chief sub-editor to join our team of talented production journalists on the award-winning Cambridge Evening News.

The News has won awards for its design and is currently the East of England Newspaper of the Year. We have recently launched a morning edition of the newspaper and are revamping our internet coverage.

We are ideally looking for someone with a great deal of knowledge of page design and the desire to move up the ladder into management.

You will be required to help ensure the editorial pages of the Evening News are produced to a high standard and help manage the subbing department.

We offer a competitive salary, five weeks' holiday plus bank holidays, discounted health care cash scheme and free parking.

Please apply to Karen Brooks, Editor's PA, with a CV and covering letter, by Friday 21st December 2007. Please email karen.brooks@cambridge-news.co.uk or write to Karen Brooks, Cambridge Newspapers Ltd, Winship Road, Milton, CB24 6PP.

We are a leading regional Newspaper publisher and a member of Iliffe News and Media. Our titles include the award-winning Cambridge Evening News, 11 weekly newspapers, a stable of magazines and a suite of websites.

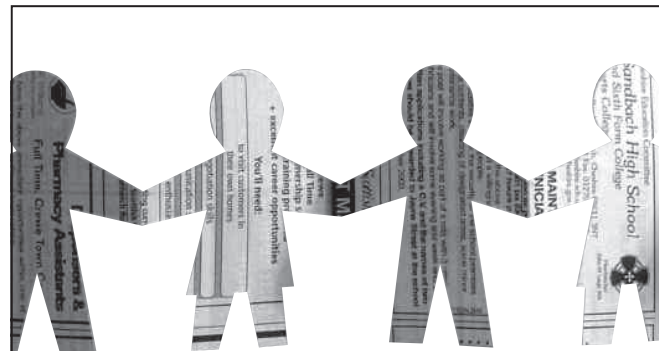

We offer a competitive salary, 5 weeks' annual holiday and free on site parking. Following a probationary period there is an option to join a contributory pension scheme and subsidised health cash plan.

INVESTOR IN PEOPLE

It is the company's policy to employ the best qualified personnel and provide equal opportunity for the advancement of employees including promotion and training and not to discriminate against any person because of sex, race, pregnancy, disability, marital or family status, age, sexual orientation, religious beliefs or trade union memberships.

If your perfect candidate lives in Cambridgeshire,

it's more than likely they read The Cambridge Evening News

With 69% of all UK business people reading a regional newspaper, it's not surprising that people who recruit consider regional press to be the most useful medium.

To connect with the calibre of person living in your area that your business needs, call the advertising department at Cambridge Evening news on 01223 434400.

FOOTBALL ROUND-UP

Grampian dedicate key win to ace Ben

GRAMPIAN Sunday are only two victories away from a place in the final of the FA Suffolk Sunday Trophy at Portman Road, the home of Championship side Ipswich Town, after they hammered Elmsett Rose & Crown 7-1.

After last week's awful injury to Ben Staples, who suffered a double break of the leg, Grampian manager Theresa Hill wanted a decisive victory to cheer Staples.

And they produced the win she was looking for, a resounding success over the Elmsett side thanks to goals from Craig Dickson, James Thurbin and five goals from Danny Hill.

Grampian will now face a tough quarter-final tie away to Ipswich Sunday League side Claydon 07, but their dreams are alive of being the only Haverhill side to win a county competition this season.

In the Treadfirst Sudbury & District Sunday League,

Division One, unbeaten Haverhill Bull continued their streak with a 4-2 victory against Haverhill Snooker & Bowl.

Goals by Harry Halls, Danny Johnston, Sam Holmes and Ian Ford took the Bull into Christmas without a defeat to their name in the league this season.

Elsewhere in Division One, Haverhill Royal Exchange lost 3-1 to Bayhorse.

Black Horse Hammers were beaten 2-0 by Northcroft in Division Two.

In Division Four, Woodlands saw off Lionhearts 2-1, while Glemsford & Cavendish beat SC Sudbury 6-2.

In Division Five, Delaware Feather Angels eased past Northcroft Rangers 4-1.

David Benson opened the scoring for Angels, toe-poking the ball home when the Sudbury side failed to clear from a corner.

Northcroft did manage to grab an equaliser, however, after picking up the ball from a loose back pass to round the keeper and finish.

Angels ended the half with a sublime well-worked team goal, finished off by Simon Morley to take a 2-1 lead at the interval.

Two strikes from substitute Mark Bailey, taking his tally for the season to four, after the restart sealed the tie at 4-1.

In the same division, Herbert Lions beat Cornard Blades 9-0, Glemsford Social Club toppled Sudbury Black Horse 5-2 and Melford Razors saw off Arrendean 5-3, with Arrendean goals coming from Aaron Stiebrins, James Wright and Matt McBrien.

So the Treadfirst Sudbury & District Sunday League season is half way through, and there has been some great matches and excellent team performances.

Haverhill Bull, Grampian Sunday and the Woodlands are all unbeaten in the league and are looking certainities to win their separate leagues respective.

We look ahead to all the cup finals and hopefully a Haverhill side will win a county cup at Portman Road.

Ellis spot on with a cool finish

Haverhill Rovers Girls U13 1
Burwell Swallows U13 1

S-TECH CAMBS GIRLS LEAGUE, DIVISION 13A

HAVERHILL started the brighter of the two sides with early pressure on the Burwell goal. However, they never really troubled the visiting goalkeeper as several shots drifted wide in the strong wind. Despite having one player more on the pitch, Burwell could not break down the Haverhill defence or trouble the home goalkeeper as the first half finished goalless. For the first 10 minutes of the second period, Haverhill were camped in the Burwell half shooting from all directions, but still they were unable to break the deadlock. The home pressure finally told when Haverhill were awarded a corner and as the ball came into the penalty area a Burwell player handled and a penalty was awarded. Chloe Ellis stepped up to score and put Haverhill ahead. After a couple of narrow escapes around their goal, Burwell did eventually get into the Haverhill half, and, from a corner, the ball rebounded off several players and fell to a visiting forward, who scored to make the final score 1-1.

Hunsden quick off the mark

Hundon Hawks U15 1
Royston U15 0

CAMBS COLTS LEAGUE, DIVISION 15C

A DEBUT goal from Shaun Hunsden was enough to give Hawks all three points in a very close encounter.

The result overturned a 4-3 reverse Hundon suffered at Royston on the opening day of the season.

It was Hawks' sixth straight win and, having come to terms with the standard of the league, they are now looking to use their games in hand to climb into the promotion frame.

The game started with Royston on top pinning Hawks back into their own half, but gradually the home side took control of the first half.

Despite creating some good chances, the period remained goalless.

The Hawks squad has been greatly strengthened by the acquisition of three new players, following the recent unfortunate demise of Parkside 2000.

All three made their debuts in this game with Tom Boyce particularly catching the eye at centre-half, but it was Hunsden with a headed goal from a wonderful cross from Nathan Poole who proved the difference between the two sides in a second half of few clear cut chances.

Grampian Gunners U14 12
St Ives B 0

CAMBS COLTS LEAGUE, DIVISION 14A

GRAMPIAN brushed aside rock bottom St Ives on Sunday.

There were hat-tricks for Luke Halls, Jacob Brown and Luke Youngs and a brace for Jordan Jackson. Dale Pryke notched his first of the campaign.

Gunners manager Simon Youngs said: "The season has so far gone a lot better than we expected and, hopefully, we can consolidate after the New Year."

Morrison set to be shown United exit

CAMBRIDGE United have confirmed that they are looking to off-load contract rebel Michael Morrison in the January transfer window – but only if the price is right. The 19-year-old Haverhill-based defender's current deal runs out at the end of the season and his refusal to sign a new contract last summer, then again over the past few weeks, has led to him being dropped to the bench by United boss Jimmy Quinn. And U's chairman Lee Power believes a parting of the ways is the best scenario for both sides and he will let Morrison go for the right fee or go to tribunal if necessary. Power said: "To be honest I don't think this is a position anyone at the club or

Michael wants to be in. It is an unfortunate and extremely difficult situation, but the only amicable ending is to listen to offers for the right money or go to a tribunal, but we won't be letting him go on the cheap. "We brought Michael Morrison through the club from when he was young and he has played a lot of games for us. So, it would be different to the situation we found ourselves in with Robbie Simpson over the summer. "I think it will be best for both parties if he found another club because we've offered him a fantastic deal and he's turned it down. But fair play to him, I've played the game and we don't want to stop someone progressing. We've just got to do what's best for Cambridge United Football Club." Power is yet to receive any concrete offers for the player, who has been at the Abbey Stadium club since he was a boy, and he has warned want-away Morrison he will continue to back his manager's decision to exclude the centre-half from his current team selection. The U's supremo added: "I have spoken to Michael's agent, but I haven't heard anything from any clubs yet. If the transfer window closes in January and he hasn't found a new side, he could be in for a long season."

Taylor seeks home comfort

■ STEVE TAYLOR . . . the Rovers boss is looking forward to a home fixture for his team.

STEVE Taylor is looking forward to returning to Hamlet Croft on Saturday after a run of four away games in the Ridgeons League, Premier Division when his Haverhill Rovers side take on Woodbridge.

Rovers slipped to a 2-0 defeat at Walsham-le-Willows last weekend and the Haverhill boss thinks the travelling has tired out his players.

Richard Heller and Martin Westcott both had chances in a goalless first half at Summer Road, but the visitors were caught half asleep not long into the second half which resulted in them going 1-0 down to a deflected strike.

Haverhill chased the game and Heller and Adam Bensaude were both denied by the post before Walsham killed the match off with a second 10 minutes from time.

Taylor said: "Walsham isn't a good place for us. We haven't scored there yet and we looked a bit jaded after four away games, but to be fair we didn't play well and this result has been coming because we have been struggling a bit.

"I'll be glad to be back at home this weekend and hopefully we can bounce back and get some points on the board going into Christmas, although we have struggled to score since beating Mildenhall 5-1 in the League Cup last month."

Rovers are seventh in the table with 36 points from 20 games in their first season back in the Ridgeons League's top flight.

Haverhill also have a home league match on Boxing Day when lowly Histon reserves are the visitors to Hamlet Croft, kick-off 11am.

RUGBY

■ JAKE PLUMRIDGE . . . the vice-captain scored all Haverhill's points in their heavy defeat at Newmarket.

Haverhill take a pounding as rivals go top

HAVERHILL were soundly beaten at Newmarket on Saturday by a rampant home side that returned to the top of the table.

Newmarket scrum-half John Franks set the scoreboard ticking with the first try and skipper Martin Hughes got the second.

Haverhill hit back with a penalty from Jake Plumridge, but Newmarket responded immediately with Raymond Richardson the benefactor after a driving maul. Newmarket then scored three tries in a 10-minute period, one of which was converted by Ollie Fowlston.

The visitors issued a riposte with a touchdown in the corner from stand-off Plumridge, to leave the half-time score at 32-8 to Newmarket.

Winger Nick Payne got the

hosts' first try after the break, which was then added to by tight-head prop Lewis Smith from eight metres.

Second row Alistair Walker picked a good line to cut through the defence and score near the posts, with Michael Reeves' conversion completing the win.

Haverhill vice-captain Plumridge said: "We had a poor first half, and they were very good and a very well-drilled side.

"We woke up a bit and played a bit harder in the second half."

But Newmarket coach Dave Sayer said: "That performance has been coming for some time."

Williams injury is the final straw

HAVERHILL Rovers Ladies went into their East Region Women's League, Premier Division match at Peterborough with eight players missing due to holidays, illness and injuries. With Haverhill only fielding nine players, Peterborough attacked in numbers from the start and went in at half-time comfortably leading 4-0. To add to Haverhill's woes, Sarah Gee then had to go off with a fractured thumb after 35 minutes and, at half-time, they were further hit by the loss of Emma Dainty, who was forced to withdraw after suffering with a chest problem. This left Rovers with only seven players for the second half. When Karen Williams, who was returning to the side after three weeks out with a calf injury, pulled up in the 70th minute with the same injury and had to leave the field, Rovers were left with just six players and the game was abandoned with Peterborough well in control, leading 9-0.
